Re: Seabrook Police Officers' Association Charities 15th Annual "Men Who Cook"
The show will, indeed, go on.

Dear Sir or Madam:

The Seabrook Police Officers Association - Charities (a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization) has hosted the "Men Who Cook" event for the last 14 years at Lakewood Yacht Club. This event offers an opportunity for those who live, work or relax in Seabrook the opportunity to meet the men and women of the Seabrook Police Department and enjoy a visit in a social setting.

The beginnings of Men Who Cook were centered around a social evening's event between local Men Who Cook, the public and members of the Seabrook PD, and to raise money for scholarships awarded to students graduating CCISD. This event has grown to include other charitable causes in the greater Seabrook community that have in the past included the D.A.R.E. (Drug Awareness Resistance Education) program, the Evelyn Meador Library After School Programs as well as several programs for students attending Seabrook Intermediate School. Hurricane Ike may now be history, but several still feel the impact and the need for charity is greater than ever.

This year, we will be honoring our Chief, Nona F. Holomon, to salute her 30 years of service to the City of Seabrook, and also her recognition by the 100 Club of Houston for the 2009 Lifetime Achievement Award. The 100 Club awards only one Lifetime Achievement Award each year, and Chief Holomon was selected over several other well qualified candidates. To be selected for such an award is an honorable distinction for the Chief, the men and women of the Department, and for the Seabrook community itself.

We invite and encourage you to consider becoming a sponsor and/or participant in this year's event. It will be a fun filled evening with wonderful food prepared by your neighbors. The Pee Wee Bowen Band will perform for your dancing enjoyment. Mark your calendars for Tuesday, April 28, 2009, 7:00 PM at Lakewood Yacht Club. More information will be available shortly at: WWW.SEABROOKMENWHOCOOL.ORG We hope to have you become involved and enjoy this year's Men Who Cook XV. Please feel free to share this information with your friends and associates.

Sincerely,
